Civil Ceremonies

To ensure the Registrar can conduct your ceremony, you should check their availability as soon as possible. Contact Skipton Registry Office on registrars.skipton@northyorks.gov.uk North Yorkshire County Council Registration Service 1 Belle Vue Square Broughton Road Skipton North Yorkshire BD23 1FJ www.northyorks.gov.uk/article/5658/Skipton-registration-office

Up to twelve months prior to the wedding date, you should visit your local Registration Office to give your Notice of Intention to Marry.

Please be aware that there are two listings within the Licensed Venues List; The Coniston Hall and The Coniston Hotel. If you are unsure please contact your Wedding Co-ordinator.

Ceremonies can be personalised with live musicians or music for the entrance, signing of the registrar and the bride and grooms exit. Within the civil ceremony, there are two opportunities when your guests can read poems. A copy of the poems should be given to the Registrar in advance along with your choice of music.

Winston's Barn

Winston's Barn, seating up to 60 guests, is a beautiful 17th Century barn and enjoys many of its original features, with high peaked ceiling and exposed wooden beams recently refurbished to compliment the ambience of this room.

Winston's is also an ideal venue for an intimate wedding breakfast. Chivari chairs provided.

Macleod's

Perfect for larger ceremonies, seating up to 120 guests. Macleod's enjoys a Southerly facing aspect, often flooded with light, creating a light, airy wedding space.

With its exposed wooden beams and peaked ceiling, a civil ceremony or civil partnership transforms Macleod's into a fabulous chapel style room with central aisle and grand entrance. Chivari chairs provided.

WHAT HAPPENS NEXT...

Following your viewing of the hotel, a date can be provisionally held for two weeks. This will allow the opportunity for you to check the availability of the Church or Registrar. After this time, the date should either be confirmed, released or the provisional period renewed. In order to confirm your wedding date, we request a non-refundable deposit of £950. A copy of the terms and conditions will be forwarded to you for completion with the deposit request.

Once the deposit is settled, there is no further payment required until two weeks prior to your wedding date. Based on your numbers given in advance prior to your special day, an invoice will be raised for the full balance which will be payable two weeks prior to the wedding date.

Any other costs incurred on the day can be settled on departure or by invoice which the Hotel will post, for which payment is required within 30 days of the wedding date.

For further details please speak to your Wedding Co-ordinator.
